FULLMOON MYSTICISM

i have learned the key to clairvoyance these rocky shores are crafted by the pulse of sails in the shadows of the mist by the rivers of the fogpalace i am aghast at the sight of a derelict vessel find the sign pilgrim of the esoteric by following the freezing moon turn the other side and that stuff through the fog of flamboyant paths dead is the image of the unadulterated steered by the hands of its creators this line is moving from time to time the notion of perfect...the quest is on forgetting the carnal side historical misfits come back to life under the spell of the unlight these are my people under a melting moon disillusion sincerity is not sheer elegy of menace watch the planets explode the ultimate grimness when you can't sleep in the line of shadows and your last thought is that you've become a noise i gaze into the moon which grants me visions now replaced by the evidence of the rubbish and here i go on... swept by thirst into the shades of gleams i still rule the skylines beyond the lunar forestall room for i beheld the ravendusk in my heart in order to reach the stars carriers of wisdom into the blazing demondome of murmurs and secrecy which is ingeniousness, revelation, pain, and shame
